

Odysseas Christou

Odysseas Christou is an Associate Professor with the School of Law of the University of Nicosia. He specializes on issues of public international law, international relations, and security. He has written previously on various aspects of the EOKA struggle, including studies on the legitimization process of the organization, studies on theoretical approaches to the struggle, and political convictions during the struggle. His co-edited volume with Hubert Faustmann and Emilios Solomou, The EOKA Period in Cyprus is forthcoming with Bloomsbury Academic.